The Beginner's Guide

Earn Income Writing Online in 3 Easy Steps

by Nate Rio

Introduction

YES!

You can, and more importantly, you WILL succeed in becoming an online freelance writer.

Now is the time to get started, as there is more content being created each and every day, and there is a lot of money to be made in freelance writing online.

Let me fill you in on a little secret - this book, though authored by me, is written by an online freelance writer!

Now I did write this introduction, because I want you to be as excited as me to get started and seeing the possibilities that are out there for you.

Whether you are a stay at home mom, someone looking to make extra income, or someone who wants to get out of the 9-5 hustle (as I like to call it), freelance writing will give you the opportunity to live a laptop lifestyle!

Where do you start? I first recommend starting out with a decent training program (see below). However, if you cannot afford $1 for the first week (joking!) you can obviously omit the training program.

However, you will have access to literally THOUSANDS of online jobs with your membership!

So check out Writing Jobs Online first to start your $1 membership, otherwise dive right into the content in this book and start making money today!

You WILL make your first dollar today if you apply the principles in this guide.

Remember, you will make as much money as compared to the effort you are willing to put into your writing career.

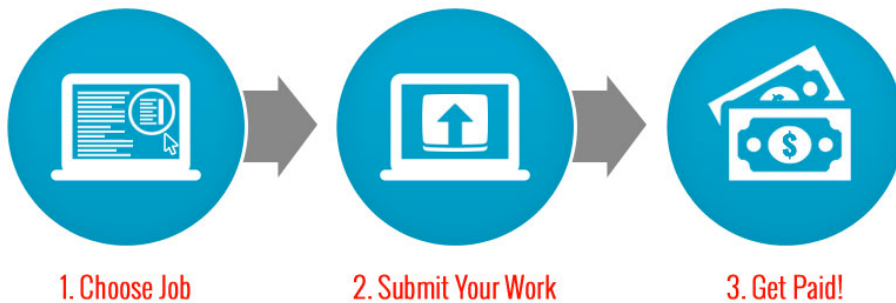

If you get discouraged at first, just keep plugging on and your income will gradually increase as you get exposed to more and more jobs that become available!

Good luck!

Nate
